

Index

- Acosta, Senor Julia, 211.
 Act Scott (Canada), 225.
 ADAMS, LYNN G. Police Officer's Difficulties in Enforcing Liquor Laws, 196-200.
 Aliens, Power of, 170, 171.
 Alcohol: amount consumed prior to prohibition, 84; attitude of employers toward use, 108; danger of use of to specialized labor, 108; drug effects of, 9-11; false stimulantcy of, 5; fear complex, 12; handicaps of, 7; hospital reports on, 11; importance of, 206; influence of modern inventions in prohibition of, 102-8; insidious effect of, 9; moderate use of, 5; temptation of, 4; use of by workingmen, 110, 111; vicious effect of, 3.
 Alcoholic drink: prohibitive use of in machine operations, 102; vs. intoxicating beverages, 73-5.
 Alton, conditions in industries in, 176.
 American ulsiness: cyclical movement of, 289; managers lack of plan, 289; necessity for restraint in, 290; planning, value of, 289; rate of expansion, 289, 290.
 AMERICAN EXPANSION AND INDUSTRIAL STABILITY. Henry S. Dennison, 289-90.
 AMERICAN PEACE AWARD, THE, 307-10.
 American workingmen, immigrants replace, 177.
 Anderson revelations, 31.
 Anti-Saloon League, 33, 34, 37, 76.
 Anti-Saloon League: accomplishments of, 282; annual meeting of, 281; beginning of, 279; Committee on Resolutions, 141; enlistment through pretense, 39; organization of, 279-80; personnel of, 281; relation between nation and state, 280; support of, 280; varied representation on, 282; wrongs of, 41.
 ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE, THE WHY AND WHAT? Harry M. Chalfant, 279-83.
 Authority, breakdown of, 8.
 Association Against the Prohibition Amendment: three fold object of, 161; work in New York of, 162.
 ASTOR, LADY. English Law Relating to the Sale of Intoxicating Liquors, The, 265-78.
 Beck, Solicitor General, 52.
 Beer: amount of home brewed, 138; effect of, 79; prejudice to the name, 79; present condition, 96; return of saloon, 99; three per cent; difficulties improving opinions, 94, 95; three per cent, intoxicating; proof of, 93, 94; three per cent; result if legalized, 99.
 Beer and light wine: activities of organization for, 162.
 Beer Revenue obtainable, 79.
 Benedict, Francis C., 9.
 BERGE, EUGENE J. Effect of Prohibition on Industry from the Viewpoint of an Employment Manager, 110-20.
 Bethlehem Steel Company, 105.
 Bismarck, fight of against Socialist movement, 298.
 BOYCE, CYRIL D. Prohibition in Canada, 225-9.
 Bratt System, 214.
 Breweries, 206.
 Business; farmers and, 292; measure of cyclical movement of (Statistics), 294; men and economists, 295; men, responsibility of, 291; present status of, 293; relation of labor to cycle, 292; sentiment, 292, 293.
 BUSINESS MEN AND THE BUSINESS CYCLE. C. H. Crennan, 291-5.
 Buttermilk, analysis of, 91, 92.
 CANONS OF JOURNALISM, 305-6.
 CAPPER, ARTHUR. Politics in the Enforcement of the Liquor Laws, 155-64.
 CHALFANT, HARRY M. Anti-Saloon League, The Why and What? 279-83.
 Cherrington, Ernest E., 141.
 CHERRINGTON, ERNEST H. World-Wide Progress Toward Prohibition Legislation, 208-24.
 Church: need of able men for, 47; in politics, 37.
 Cider, unrestricted sale of, 137.
 Citizenship, relation of health to, 7.
 Civil War, increase in drunkenness after, 279.
 COMMENTS ON PROHIBITION BY A LUMBERMAN AND MINER. T. D. Stiles, 129-32.
 Constitution of 1789, 44, 45.
 Constitution, authority of, 8.
 CONSUMPTION OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES, THE. Hugh F. Fox, 137-44.
 CRENNAN, C. H. Business Men and the Business Cycle, 291-5.
 Crim, John W. H., 53.
 Curtis, Mr. George Ticknor, 45, 46.
 Curtis Publishing Company, 112.
 Dana, Richard Henry, 169.
 Declaration of Independence, reason for, 43.
 DENNISON, HENRY S. American Expansion and Industrial Stability, 289-90.
 Disease, preventable amount, 4.
 Drug companies, formation of fake, 196, 197.
 Drunkenness, relief for, 77.
 Dunkin Act (Canada), 231.

- EDGE, SENATOR WALTER E. Non-Effectiveness of the Volstead Act, The, 67-83.
- EFFECT OF PROHIBITION ON INDUSTRY FROM THE VIEWPOINT OF AN EMPLOYMENT MANAGER, THE. Eugene J. Bengel, 110-20.
- Efficiency movement, 110.
- EIGHTEENTH AMENDMENT AN INFRINGEMENT OF LIBERTY, THE. Hon. Henry S. Priest, 39-47.
- Eighteenth Amendment: a sumptuary measure, 42; courses of action regarding, 193, 194; court rulings of, 197, 198; effect of on Great Britain, 148; evasion of, 197; existing enforcement of, 16; faults in, 48, 49; faults of, 41; forceful opinions regarding, 16-24; general disregard of, 50; intent of, 67; lenient court action, 196; majority against, 40; public opinion in favor of, 172; purpose of, 50; question of foreign vessels within United States territorial waters, 148, 149; radical change in government by, 44; removal from politics necessary, 163; suggestions as to, 51; suggested repeal of, 65; United States Government prior to, 43; ways to enforce, 285; what Pennsylvania police records show since, 196.
- Eliot, Dr. Charles W., opinion of, 90.
- Emperor William II, creation of worker's protective laws by, 298.
- Employment Managers, views of, regarding prohibition, 112.
- Employment Service Act of 1922 (Germany), 303.
- ENGLISH LAW RELATING TO THE SALE OF INTOXICATING LIQUORS, THE. Lady Astor, 265-78.
- Federal Government, exceeded its limits, 42.
- Federal service, demoralization of, 203, 204.
- Fisher, Irving, 111.
- FISK, EUGENE LYMAN. Relationship of Alcohol to Society and to Citizenship, The, 1-14.
- Fiske, John, 30.
- FOX, HUGH F. Consumption of Alcoholic Beverages, The, 137-44.
- FRANKEL, EMIL. Germany's New Labor Legislation, 296-304.
- FRANKFURTER, FELIX. National Policy for Enforcement of Prohibition, A, 193-5.
- FRANKLIN, FABIAN. What's Wrong with the Eighteenth Amendment? 48-51.
- French Revolution, 52.
- German Constitution, incorporation of new, 301, 303.
- German military machine, collapse of, 299.
- GERMANY'S NEW LABOR LEGISLATION. Emil Frankel, 296-304.
- Graham and McConnell Case, 168, 169.
- Grand Jury, action of, 197.
- Grape crop, increasing problems of, 139.
- Great Britain, liquor conditions in, 79.
- Haynes, Commissioner, 80, 137.
- Hayward, District Attorney, 48.
- HILL, ALFRED G. Kansas and Its Prohibition Enforcement, 133-6.
- HOBART, HON. GEORGE S. Volstead Act, The, 85-101.
- Home-brewing, dealers in apparatus for, 140.
- HUMAN ELEMENT IN PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT, THE. T. Henry Walnut, 201-7.
- HUNSBERGER, AMBROSE. Practice of Pharmacy Under the Volstead Act, The, 179-92.
- Industries, standardized: failure of to supply wholesome drinking water, 175.
- INHERENT FRAILTIES OF PROHIBITION. John Koren, 52-61.
- Intoxicating Liquor Bill (England), 212.
- Intoxication, interpretation of state of, 11.
- JESSUP, HENRY W. State Rights and Prohibition, 62-6.
- Justice, Department of, power of, 201.
- KANSAS AND ITS PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT. Alfred G. Hill, 133-6.
- KELLEY, FLORENCE. Laborers in Heat and in Heavy Industries, 175-8.
- KOREN, JOHN. Inherent Frailties of Prohibition, 52-61.
- Kramer, John F., 101.
- Labor: German development of legislation, 297-9; German legislation before war, 296; German new legislation, 296-7; specialized, 108; danger of untrained, 108.
- Laborer, antagonism of toward rich, 31.
- LABORERS IN HEAT AND IN HEAVY INDUSTRIES. Florence Kelley, 175-8.
- Law: future effectiveness of, 127, 128; seriousness of defiance of, 126.
- Leacock, Dr. Steven, 84.
- League of Nations, Opium Committee of, proposals of U. S., 147.
- Legislation, right of, 62.
- Leverhulme, Lord, 114.
- Licenses, issued (Canada), 240.
- Licensing Board, work of Boston, 121.
- Life Extension Institute: percentage of defectives shown, 4.
- Life insurance companies, experience of, 6; testimony of, 2.
- Light wines and beer: amount consumed (France, Germany), 99; existing conditions in Europe, 12.
- Lincoln, Abraham, 161.
- Lincoln and Inaugural address, 62.
- Lincoln, Abraham, and Dred Scott Case, 72.
- Liquor: amount consumed in foreign countries, 145; compensation fund (England), 272; early licensing laws (England), 265, 266;

effect of war on (England), 272-4; English interests in, 158; European interests in aroused, 160; evasion, dangers to police in gathering evidence of, 199; first legislative restriction on sale of (England), 265; illicit sale of in Massachusetts, 122; influence of on strikes, 131; international traffic in, effect of strong, 208; lumbermen and use of, 129; miners and, 129; (England) 19th century history, 267; political appointments and, 162, 163; politics and, 131, 155; (England) present restrictions as to sale of, 268, 269; (England) "Private Members" Bills, 275-277; (England) recent legislation (Scotland local veto), 274, 275; small amount of good available, 124; smuggling problem, 149, 150; (England) sold in inns, 270; (England) "tied" vs. "free" house, 271; trust system applied to, 157; use of by aliens, 171.

LIQUOR IN INTERNATIONAL TRADE. Wayne B. Wheeler, 145-54.

Local Option: (Canada), 235, 236; in New Jersey, 76.

Machine methods: in crude iron and steel industries, 104-6; in foundries and shops, 106-8; in use of coal and coke mining, 103, 104. Mechanical inventions, changes necessary because of, 102.

MEN, MACHINERY AND ALCOHOLIC DRINK. Charles Reitell, 102-9.

Mitchell, Wesley C., 291.

Moonshine whisky, amount made, 137.

Moral law, results of man-made, 40.

Motor Company, Packard and Ford, 107.

NATIONAL POLICY FOR ENFORCEMENT OF PROHIBITION. A. Felix Frankfurter, 193-5.

Newsholme, Sir Arthur, 124.

NON-EFFECTIVENESS OF THE VOLSTEAD ACT, THE. Senator Walter E. Edge, 67-83.

NOTES ABOUT PROHIBITION FROM THE BACKGROUND. Robert A. Woods, 121-8.

OAKLEY, IMOGEN. Prohibition Law and the Political Machine, The, 165-74.

OUR EXPERIMENT IN NATIONAL PROHIBITION. WHAT PROGRESS HAS IT MADE? W. H. Stayton, 26-38.

Pasha, H. E. Yehia Ibrahim, 219.

Pay day (miners), 130.

Pay days: (lumberman) monthly; effect of on liquor use, 129.

Permits, issuance of whisky, 205.

Personal liberty: definition of, 1; necessary curtailment of, 15; political propaganda, 131.

Philanthropists, hypocrisy of, 41.

Pharmacy: advanced educational requirements in, 181; attempts to control liquor problem, 185, 186; code of ethics for practice of, 180; practice of, early history, 179; efforts to establish manufacturing plants, 182; Eighteenth Amendment and (see Eighteenth Amendment), 184, 185; Eighteenth Amendment and; mushroom enterprises, 187; Eighteenth Amendment and; red tape involved and results of, 189, 190; formation of national organizations, 180; Philadelphia College of, 179; practice of regulating of, 180, 181; practice of; duties and responsibilities involved in, 183; retail field, 182, 183; "retail liquor dealers" license, 185; scientific contributions, 181; Eighteenth Amendment and, 184-190.

Philosophy, abstract and moral, 39.

PINCHOT, GIFFORD. Why I Believe in Enforcing the Prohibition Laws, 284-5.

Pittsburg Survey; work of, 176; work of "water boys," 177.

POLICE OFFICER'S DIFFICULTIES IN ENFORCING LIQUOR LAWS, THE. Lynn G. Adams, 196-200.

Politics: enemy of business, 291.

POLITICS IN THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LIQUOR LAWS. Arthur Capper, 155-64.

Potter, Albert E., 112.

Powderly, Mr. Terrence V., 84.

PRACTICE OF PHARMACY UNDER THE VOLSTEAD ACT, THE. Ambrose Hunsberger, 179-92.

PRIEST, HON. HENRY S. Eighteenth Amendment an Infringement of Liberty, The, 39-47.

PROHIBITION. Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, 15-25.

PROHIBITION LAW AND THE POLITICAL MACHINE, THE. Imogen B. Oakley, 165-74.

Prohibition: agents, 204; battle of enforcement, 53; benefits of, 29; bootleggers as violators of, 202; Canada, 230; Canada, efforts toward national, 226; Canada, enactment of provincial, 226, 227; Canada, Moderation League, 224; Canada, present position of, 227, 228; Canada, use in, 225; combative efforts against, 148; conditions since, 58; (Canada) constitutional difficulties, 232; cost of enforcement, 37; (Canada) crime and drugs, 250-1; culmination of continuous effort, 193; (Canada) difficulties of enforcement, 239; disregard of, 65; disregard of after war, 167; early attempts, 27; effects of (social, employment, education), 130-1; effect of education of, 262-4; effect of on international standing, 35-7; endorsement of by railroads, 111; enforcement, difficulty of in homes, 141; enforcement problem, 141-3; enforcing of in Pennsylvania, 284; English attitude toward, 124; evolution of in United States, 209; experiment of in United States, 208; evils of, 30-3; factors in establishing national, 159; first Provincial Laws of, 234;

- home movement since, 125; improvement in family and economic conditions since, 124, 125; inferior type of enforcement agent, 169, 170; (Canada) influence of war on, 238; in Hawaii, 98; justification for evasion of, 122; Kansas and federal, 133; Kansas drastic enforcement of, 134, 135; Kansas; federal; results in since, 134; Kansas, foreigners chief violators of, 135; in Kansas, 133; labor attitude toward, 125; lawlessness since, 60-1; legislation and, 63; Massachusetts and New Jersey survey, 87-9; measures for in Europe, 146; measures used by opponents to, 159; misdirected use of force, 52, 53; obstacle to, 132; Pinchot, Government and Enforcement Problem, 142; political methods of opponents, 162; political issue, 55, 56; political value of state director of, 205; prior to World War, 26; progress made toward enforcement of, 121; progress toward in other countries, 200-22; prospect for world, 224; provision of substitute drinks, 175; purpose of not accomplished, 27-9; (Canada) reasons for success of, 236; relation of war to national, 201; representative citizen evading, 122; present results of, 13; state defiance of, 54; states for, 97-8; state rights vs. federal, 64; state vs. national, 26; steady growth of, 166; suggestions as to enforcement of, 150, 151; testimony of hospitals, 123, 124; testimony of social workers, 123; world war impetus to, 167; statistics; worthlessness of, 59; weaknesses of 57, 58; what surveys for show, 115-9; worth of, 15.
- PROHIBITION IN CANADA. Cyril D. Boyce, 225-9.
- PROHIBITORY LEGISLATION IN CANADA. B. H. Spence, 230-64.
- Reed, Senator, 165.
- REITELL, CHARLES. Men, Machinery and Alcoholic Drink, 102-9.
- RELATIONSHIP OF ALCOHOL TO SOCIETY AND TO CITIZENSHIP, THE. Eugene Lyman Fisk, 1-14.
- Retail Liquor Dealers Association, 202, 203.
- Roosevelt, Theodore, 157.
- Russell, Rev. Howard H., 279.
- Saloon: disappearance of, 86; (lumbermen and miners) social center, 130; menace of, 15; non-return of made possible, 78; political meeting in, 157; power of, 166; resort of evil, 126; (Canada) substitutes for, 259.
- Saloon keepers, business of, 204.
- Selective Service Act, 201.
- Senate Judiciary Committee, political methods of brewers shown by, 157, 158.
- Slavery issue, 63.
- Socialist leaders (Germany), 296.
- Socialists, German efforts of, 299-301.
- SPENCE, B. H. Prohibitory Legislation in Canada, 230-64.
- Spence, F. S., 230.
- STATE RIGHTS AND PROHIBITION. Henry W. Jessup, 62-6.
- States, vs. federal rights, 194.
- STATTON, W. H. Our Experiment in National Prohibition. What Progress Has It Made? 26-38.
- Statistics, misleading, 70-1.
- Sterling-Lehlbach Bill, 172.
- STILES, T. D. Comments on Prohibition by a Lumberman and Miner, 129-32.
- Stock Market, 293.
- Supreme Court: decisions, 42, 43; test case before, 143.
- Swedish Law pertaining to liquor, 78.
- Taft, Chief Justice, 100.
- Temperance: beginning of organized movement (Canada), 231; beginning of, 39; early, 52; in Great Britain, 277; obstacles, 277.
- Till, Mr. Case of (England), 270.
- TOMKINS, REV. FLOYD W. Prohibition, 15-25.
- Tousson, Prince Omar, 219.
- Treaty of Versailles, Germany and, 302.
- Vice vs. crime, 40.
- Violators of law, representative element among, 73.
- VOLSTEAD ACT, THE. Hon. George S. Hobart, 85-101.
- Volstead Act: action of Congress, 82; amendment to, 165, 166; antagonism of public to, 203; consequences seen from, 78; contentions in regard to, 68-71; discriminating element of, 46; effectiveness of, 85; expenditures for enforcement of, 80; fair test of, 85, 86; inconsistencies in, 80; modification of, 143; original, 165; passing of, 202; remedy for existing conditions, 72; result of failure to enforce, 67, 68; revised, 78; specific objection to, 91; type of agents, 46; vetoed by senators, 72; why passed, 67.
- WALNUT, T. HENRY. Human Element in Prohibition Enforcement, The, 201-7.
- Washington, Conditions in, 81.
- Washington Conference of the International Labor Organization, Germany at, 303.
- WHAT'S WRONG WITH THE EIGHTEENTH AMENDMENT? Fabian Franklin, 48-51.
- WHEELER, WAYNE B. Liquor in International Law, 145-54.
- Whisky Insurrection-1794, 156.
- Whisky Ring, 156.
- WHY I BELIEVE IN ENFORCING THE PROHIBITION LAWS. Gifford Pinchot, 284-5.
- Wine-making, increase in home, 138.
- Women's Christian Temperance Union, 30, 279.

WOODS, ROBERT A. Notes about Prohibition
from the Background, 121-8.
Workers' Courts, creation of in Germany,
304.

Workingmen, demand for some kind of drink, 178.
WORLD-WIDE PROGRESS TOWARD PROHIBITION
LEGISLATION. Ernest H. Cherrington,
208-24.

